Walton County Tax Collector’s DeFuniak Springs Office Unable to Process Vehicle Registration Renewals and Title Work Today Due to Computer Problem

Citizens with urgent registration renewals or title work are encouraged to visit the Santa Rosa Beach Office

DeFuniak Springs, FL (December 14, 2009) – The Walton County Tax Collector’s DeFuniak Springs Office is unable to process any Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicle (DMV) transactions due to a computer problem that is currently being repaired. It is undetermined at this time when the problem will be corrected. Individuals with urgent vehicle registration renewals or title work transactions are encouraged to visit the Santa Rosa Beach office or one of our neighboring county tax collector’s offices.

Walton County property tax payments can still be processed at the DeFuniak Springs and Santa Rosa Beach Offices.

“We apologize for this inconvenience. Tallahassee is working to get the problem corrected quickly,” said Rhonda Skipper, Walton County Tax Collector.

An update will be provided when the DeFuniak Springs office’s DMV computer system is again operational.
