

Media Release

For Immediate Release

Contact:

Lisa Henderson,
Employee Club President
(850) 892-8121

TAX COLLECTOR OFFICE EMPLOYEES TO HOST WOMANLESS BEAUTY PAGEANT FUNDRAISER AUGUST 21 Proceeds to benefit DeFuniak Springs Teen Center

DeFuniak Springs, FL (August 6, 2010) –Employees of the Walton County Tax Collector's Office will host a Womanless Beauty Pageant Fundraiser on Saturday, August 21 at 6 pm at the DeFuniak Springs Teen Center. Thirteen men will set aside their pride and parade down the cat walk dressed as women to raise money for the teens. All proceeds from the event will go directly to the DeFuniak Springs Teen Center.

Confirmed pageant participants to date are: Trey Nick, Cory Godwin, Tom Baker, Rosier Cuchens, Eric Aden, Chance Pitts, Timmy Carter, Rick Kirby, Tillman Mears, Dusty Beck and Garrett Miller.

The competition will be judged by County Judge David Green, Sheriff Mike Adkinson and County Commissioner Kenneth Pridgen. Participants will be judged on stage presence, personality, attire and talent. The participant with the highest overall score will be crowned Miss WBP 2010. Event attendees, however, will have an opportunity to participate in the judging by paying a small fee to vote for their favorite contestant to receive the Peoples' Choice Award. WZEP radio personality Art Dees will serve as emcee for the event.

Admission to the family-friendly event is $5 for ages 13 and up, $2 for ages 6-12 and free for ages 5 and under. Concessions will also be available including soft drinks, pulled pork sandwiches, pizza and popcorn.

The entire community is encouraged to come and participate in an evening that promises to be highly entertaining while supporting our local teens and the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Emerald Coast.

Womanless Beauty Pageant 2010
Saturday, August 21
6 PM
DeFuniak Springs Teen Center
435 State Hwy. 83 North (formerly the Armory building)

Proceeds benefit the
DeFuniak Springs Teen Center

###